

Social and Personal

ALINE THOMPSON

Of special importance on society's list of engagements for this month is the premier subscription dance which will be given Monday evening, December the twenty-seventh in the Moose hall.

It appears that society folk are unable to keep away from the fascinating art of dancing and the social calendar for the remainder of the season will no doubt be brimming with this cherished diversion.

Numerous formal and informal dancing clubs have been organized by society folk this season, and it is wise to expect that another perfectly new club will soon appear on the list of informal dancing clubs.

Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., entertained this afternoon with a delightful informal Kensington and tea in honor of her home guest, Mrs. Joseph C. Lewis, of Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. Burghardt also had as her guest, over Sunday, Mrs. Lewis' sister, Mrs. J. E. Hedges, of Oregon City.

An array of wonderful blossoms and countless messages of congratulations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bishop, of Pendleton, upon the arrival of a son, born Monday, December the thirteenth.

Mrs. A. N. Bush went to Portland this morning to visit her mother, Mrs. John Hughes.

The Musicians' dance last night in the armory called forth an unusually large and merry gathering.

Splendid music composed of a twenty-piece orchestra, made the evening very successful.

The patronesses for the affair were: Mrs. John Graber, Mrs. Edward Tall-

Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy is Home-Made

Easily Prepared in a Few Minutes. Cheap but Unequaled

Some people are constantly annoyed from one year's end to the other with a persistent bronchial cough, which is wholly unnecessary. Here is a home-made remedy that gets right at the cause and will make you wonder what became of it. (Get 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (30 cents worth) from any druggist, pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the pinex thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals the inflammation in a painful cough with remarkable rapidity. Ordinary coughs are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, winter coughs and bronchial asthma.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup mixture makes a full pint—enough to last a family a long time—at a cost of only 54 cents. Keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant. Easily prepared. Full directions with Pinex.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine bark, rich in quinine, and is famous the world over for its certain and promptness in overcoming bad coughs, heat and throat colds.

SUPREME COURT GIVES CHILD TO MOTHER IN POLK COUNTY CASE

Mollie Bowers Wins Two Years' Fight For Possession of Her Daughter

The two years' fight for the possession of her four-year-old daughter resulted in a victory for the mother, Mollie Bowers, in a decision of the supreme court handed down this morning reversing the ruling of Judge H. H. Belt of Polk county. Mollie Bowers was divorced from her husband in Multnomah county in 1913 and the court awarded the care and custody of Marion Bowers, the daughter of the couple to the grand parents of the child, Mr. and Mrs. John Stump, of Dallas. The child was taken to Dallas and placed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milt B. Grant by the mother of the child. Later Mrs. Bowers sought to gain possession of the child but the grants refused to give her up and the county seat of Polk county ordered her to remain in the Grant household.

Mrs. Bowers petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus but the writ was dismissed in the circuit court and the mother appealed to the supreme court. Chief Justice Moore in reversing the decision of the lower court which dismissed the writ held that the lower court was in error and directed that an order be entered in the supreme court restoring liberty of the ward and surrendering her to the petitioner until further order of the Portland juvenile court which court the chief justice held to have jurisdiction in the matter since this court first ordered the child taken to Dallas.

Walter L. Toomey, Jr., and Charles W. Robinson, of Portland, represented Mrs. Bowers in the supreme court and J. E. Stibley and G. O. Holman appeared for the grants.

Von Koolbergen is a British Spy Says Attorney

other operatives, it is said.

Finally, New York bomb activities turned the government to the trail of German agents. Thereupon Brincken warned, it is said, that Koolbergen had better "lie low." Finally, Koolbergen feared that German agents suspected his British connection, so he departed for Canada.

Responsible for Indictments.

Koolbergen's evidence is regarded as largely responsible for the indictments last night of C. C. Crowley, Baron Von Brincken and Mrs. Margaret Cornell. They are charged with conspiracy to destroy foreign commerce, and with using the mails in a way tending to incite to arson and murder.

News that Koolbergen is held on a felony charge at Calgary cast some doubt on intimations that he had worked in conjunction with the Canadian government.

Attorney McGowan, for Baron Brincken, commented, however, that he believed Koolbergen had been a British spy, and moreover branded him a "romancer" and "adventurer." As to Koolbergen's alleged evidence concerning bomb making, McGowan said:

"Insist He Was British Spy.

"I don't want to make a statement just now, though I may later. As I've said right along, I don't believe any of these charges, and it seems to me that it is quite evident this man was a British spy."

In view of the return of indictments against the alleged bomb conspirators, the preliminary hearing in their cases stated for today was due to be dispensed with.

Attorney Lempe for the German consulate likewise charged that Koolbergen was a British spy. He declared he has evidence of "shady" operations in this city by Koolbergen, and intimated that his efforts to get in with Von Brincken showed he was "playing both ends against the middle."
